INTRODUCTION.

From November 2020 to May 2021, the Cunard fleet will travel 138,833 nautical miles visiting incredible places across the globe. The most famous Ocean Liners in the world call at 94 destinations in 38 different countries, including 3 maiden calls for our current fleet. Each voyage, whether it's a 2-night short break or a full 113-night world voyage aims to deliver refined journeys for our guests.

Cunard has undertaken more world voyages and sent more ships across the world than any other passenger line, making us the true experts in world voyages. In fact, the concept of world cruising was invented by Cunard in 1922, when the elegant Laconia completed the first ever continuous circumnavigation of the globe by a passenger liner, taking in 22 ports in 130 days.

In 2021, Cunard's iconic flagship, Queen Mary 2, will embark upon a classic voyage of global exploration, taking in such diverse regions as Southern Africa, the Indian Ocean, Australia, Southeast Asia and the Mediterranean. Queen Victoria sets sail on a Western Circumnavigation of the Globe that is packed full of 'must-do' experiences, while Queen Elizabeth will carry out a programme of exotic voyages that offer richer, deeper and more regionally-focused itineraries, including her return to Australia and New Zealand for her third homeport season.

Across the fleet, Cunard's programme covers the world, offering a blend of iconic, world-class cities and smaller, less well-known but equally delightful destinations. Our itineraries have been crafted to offer enriching days in port as well as plenty of time on board for our guests to relax and enjoy all that our ships have to offer.

QUEEN ELIZABETH.

- Grand Voyages, by Cunard and Regions of the World, by Cunard.
- 82 voyage combinations ranging from 2 to 39 nights
- Over 49,000 nautical miles
- 46 ports
- 10 countries
- 4 maiden calls for Queen Elizabeth
- Overnight stays in Auckland, Wellington, Hobart, Singapore and Hong Kong
- Scenic cruising in Fiordland National Park, New Zealand
- 24 UNESCO World Heritage Sites

In late 2020 and early 2021, Queen Elizabeth offers a series of round trip voyages that offer deeper, richer and more regionally focused itineraries. In between these home-ported deployments will be exotic grand voyages that capture the imagination and spirit of adventure in travel lovers across the world.

Australia – Late November to early March.

Queen Elizabeth will return to Australia for an unparalleled 118 days over the 2020-21 summer, headlining Cunard's biggest ever Australian season. She will operate four round trip voyages from Melbourne and four from Sydney, covering the popular regions of South Australia, Tasmania and New Zealand. New in 2021 is a pair of "open-jaw" New Zealand voyages, travelling from Sydney to Auckland and from Auckland to Sydney. These can be taken individually as 12- or 13-night voyages, or combined into a longer 25-night Sydney round trip that offers the full experience of nine different New Zealand ports, two ports in Tasmania as well as a day in Melbourne. Also included is Cunard's second-ever Christmas cruise from Australia.

At the end of the Australian home port season in March, Queen Elizabeth will travel north to Japan via Southeast Asia. The voyage will include a variety of exotic and iconic destinations such as Papua New Guinea, Singapore, Vietnam, Hong Kong, Taiwan and the Philippines.

Japan - mid April to mid May.

Cunard's Japanese deployment will consist of three nine-night round trip voyages and one of seven nights, embarking from the Japanese capital city of Tokyo. The first two 9-night voyages will highlight the multi-faceted nature and deep cultural roots of Japan's main islands of Honshu and Kyushu and are timed to take in the spectacular spring blooms across the region. The 7-night cruise coincides with Golden week which is one of Japan's busiest holiday seasons. The final voyage in Queen Elizabeth's deployment is a new itinerary type, a round trip voyage to the Okinawa archipelago and Taiwan, setting a contrast to the mountainous regions of Northern Japan. This voyage features a maiden call to the island of Miyakojima and is timed to arrive in these tropical islands at the start of their peak season.

The circumnavigation will begin by crossing the Atlantic to Florida via Bermuda, followed by a Trans-Panama segment. Queen Victoria will then cross the Pacific via Hawaii and Samoa to New Zealand. Following the visit to Asia, Queen Victoria will return to Southampton via Singapore, the Indian Ocean and South Africa.

Shorter voyage options exist, ranging in length from one to three weeks and can be combined in many ways allowing guests to create the ideal travel experience from and to the iconic city of their choice.

The beginning of the voyage is routed via South Africa and the Indian Ocean to Australia. From there Queen Mary 2 will head north to Hong Kong and on to Singapore via Vietnam. She then travels through the Malacca Straits across the Indian Ocean to the Arabian Gulf.
